Office Order No. 88 of 2025 (Med.)

Rural and Urban Health Training Centers (RHTCs and UHTCs) are crucial for community medicine education, offering practical training and learning opportunities for medical students and interns focusing on community-based learning and health program implementation.

Additionally, the prevailing NMC guidelines state that "For every hospital seeking permission to start medical college, the medical college shall have Rural Health Training Centre/Community Health Centers/Urban Health Centers affiliated to it; as per the geographical location of the college, which shall be used be used for students & internship training."

In view of establishment of Medical College at ESIC Hospital, Sector-24, Noida, the below mentioned dispensaries are hereby designated as RHTC and UHTC:-

S. No.	Name of Dispensary	Designated as
1	ESIC Dispensary, Sector-57 Noida	Urban Health Training Centre (UHTC)
2	ESIC Dispensary, Greater Noida	Rural Health Training Centre (RHTC)

The above designated centres will facilitate the undergraduate students and interns an exposure to the urban and rural communities for better understanding of health issues in respective communities.

In-charge of respective ESIC Dispensary are hereby directed to make arrangement for establishment of Health Training Centre and initiate proper installation and display of appropriate signages etc at the earliest.
